Ohrt Completes 11th Bike Ride to Palm Springs

Hans Ohrt, 58, of Beverly Hills and La Quinta, Tuesday completed his 11th annual bicycle ride from Beverly Hills to Palm Springs making the trip in eight hours, 45 minutes despite a heavy wind in San Geronimo pass.

Ohrt said the trip was "wonderful." The highways are excellent, the motorists were courteous and he had little difficulty.

"THE ONLY THING that bothered me on the trip was the rubbish along the roadsides, dumped by careless motorists. From my vantage point of being nearer to the ground and traveling more slowly, I could see the debris more plainly than most people can when whizzing by in automobiles. I believe there should be a determined campaign against these rubbish-tossers with stiff penalties. Outside of that, the trip was really great."

OHRT HAS MADE the 115 miles from Beverly Hills to Palm Springs in faster time. His best time was 10 years ago when he negotiated the jaunt in seven hours, 20 minutes.

"But you must remember," he said, "I was only 48 years old then."

Ohrt had high praise for Owen Coffman post, American Legion, and The Desert Sun for backing the amateur bicycle races next Sunday. He was national champion in 1915.

"BICYCLE RACING was once the national sport, above baseball, football and other sports," he said. "That was before the See OHRT, Page 6a"

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

NOT VERSE, WORSE At Tamarisk. The golf is brisk. Also at O'Donnell. And then, next week. There is the peak. The Circus comes pellmell.

And after that, stick around through May.

IT TOOK the Vernal Equinox three weeks to catch up to me . . . or vice versa . . . Now I've got Spring fever . . . This morning by the dawn's early light, I took a clean, white sheet of paper, typed in the upper left hand corner: "THIS SIDE OF THE SUN" . . . And then sat and looked at it so long I was almost on the other side of the sun . . . I knew I really had it when I found myself thumbing over the calendar counting the days until the vacation starts . . . And smearing up the scratch pad with computations on the cost of the vacation including deductions for rail fare, meals and sundry items at Del Mar . . . Yes, Spring is really here.

Sunrise Service Attracts Largest Crowd in History

Largest crowd in its 37-year history attended the Easter Sunrise Service at Inspiration Point, overlooking the O'Donnell Golf course.

Dr. James H. Blackstone Jr., pastor of the sponsoring Community church, reported that about 2000 persons attended the service in person, with many more listening to the service in their homes. Loudspeakers broadcast the service throughout the Village.

One of the highlights of the service was the reading of selected Easter stories by Bill Ray. This was Ray's eighteenth consecutive appearance at the service, and he made a special trip here to attend. His first appearance was when he was an announcer for the Amos 'n' Andy radio broadcast.

Dr. Blackstone delivered the Easter message. Other ministers participating were the Rev. Jack B. Morrow, pastor of the Four Square church, and the Rev. Walter C. Hanneman, pastor of the Fall Gospel church.

Mail Box, Post Reported Stolen

Miss Bonita Granville, lovely star of the screen, has been named Desert Circus Queen and will reign over all events.

Local School Teachers Plan to Ask Salary Hike

County School Boards Here for Meeting

Trend for Higher Pay Discussed at Dinner Meeting

Palm Springs teachers will be seeking an increase in their basic salary schedule, according to a trend in other Riverside county communities.

This trend of salary increases was reported by seven school districts at a dinner meeting of the Riverside County School Trustees' association held Tuesday evening in the cafeteria of Palm Springs high school.

Others have not received requests for increases, or have not taken action.

IT IS REPORTED that the request locally will be presented to the trustees at their regular meeting April 16. A committee of teachers from Palm Springs Unified School district attended the trustees' meeting.

The teachers' salary question for 1953-54 was one of two subjects discussed by a panel of trustees, with other trustees participating with questions and comments. The other subject was schoolhouse construction costs.

MEMBERS of the two panels were Mrs. E. M. Bonnett, Riverside city board of education; Henry A. Hoeger, Corona Unified School district; Claude C. McMahon, Oasis Elementary School district; Mrs. Christine McAllister, Beaumont Elementary School district; and Paul T. Lockhart, administrative assistant in charge of building program for Riverside schools.

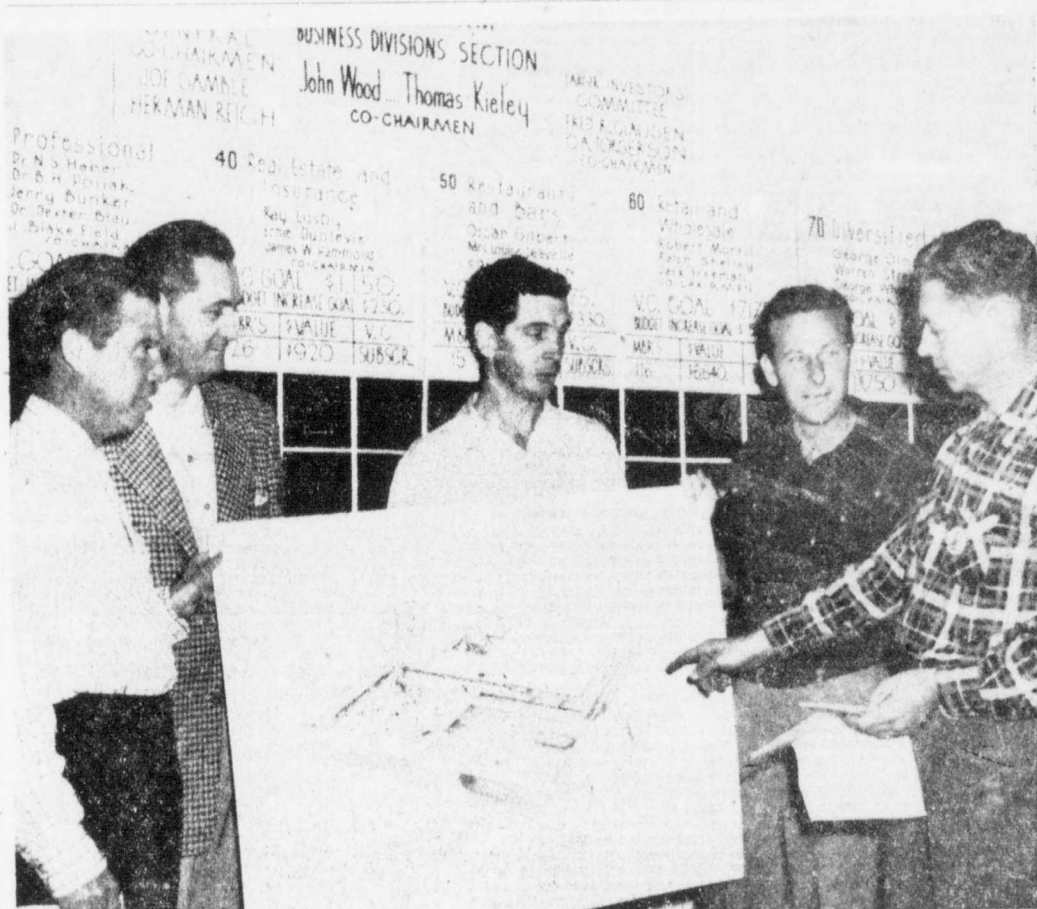

Mrs. Bonnett and Mrs. McAllister reported that increases of approximately $400 to $500 had been granted by their boards this year, with Hoeger saying that "we have raised salaries every year, and it seems necessary to do so again this year."

QUESTIONED by Palm Springs Trustee George Ripley as to why an increase was necessary seeing that living costs were leveling off, Hoeger commented that "as long as a minimum number of teachers are available, and some districts have more money than others, we have to raise to keep the better teachers."

In order to maintain previous increases, the Corona trustees reported that the board has had to "cut out capital improvements."

Asked by Palm Springs Board President Hilton McCabe about what would be done to pay further increases, Hoeger said that "we haven't raised salaries yet."

John Wood, co-chairman with Tom Kieley of the Business Divisions Section; George Olman, chairman, diversified business section; Joe Gamble, general chairman with Herman Reich of the entire campaign, and Frank Prince, president of the Chamber.

Chest Now Only Two-Thirds Full with Week Left

Only two-thirds of the $11,000 quota has been raised, with only one more week to go before the Community Chest drive ends April 16. President William Smith reported today.

Amount raised to date is $27,988.81, with $13,188.74 more needed to complete the quota of $41,087.55.

This week has been proclaimed as Community Chest Clean-up Week by Mayor Charles Farrell, and Villagers are asked to co-operate in every way possible to make the campaign a success.

Smith said that several residents are contacting persons who have not contributed, and asked that others aid in this way.

Participating agencies in the Community Chest and their quotas approved by the board of directors are: Boys Club $6040, Boy Scouts $4119.74, Girl Scouts $2956.46, Desert Museum $6870, Welfare and Friendly Aid $5800, Youth Center $8604.

If the quota is not reached, the agencies may be forced to curtail their activities, Smith warned.

Plan Observance of Public School Week in Village

Open House will be held at schools during that week on the following dates: Cahulla April 27; Nellie Coffman and High School April 28; Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, Frances Stevens, and Thousand Palms, April 29; Katherine Finchy, April 30.

The committee announced plans to contact each service club in the district and invite members to visit schools during that week, and attend the "Open House" activities.

DINNER LAUNCHES 'BUILD FOR TOMORROW' DRIVE

"Build for Tomorrow" campaign of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce got under way Tuesday morning following a kick-off dinner Monday night at the Wars Memorial building.

More than 100 volunteer workers are currently actively engaged in the solicitation campaign to secure sufficient funds to erect a permanent Chamber office, together with a Visitors' Center.

ESTIMATED COST of the new building is $30,000, according to Herman Reich and Joe Gamble, co-chairmen of the drive. The site has not been determined.

FEATURED SPEAKER was Lloyd A. Wilson, president of the Lloyd A. Wilson Service of San Francisco, who is serving as the Chamber's counselor and program director in this expansion drive.

Other speakers in support of the program were Reich, Gamble, and Chamber president Frank Prince.

AMAZON HEAD-HUNTERS. By Lewis Cotlow. 245 pp. Henry Holt & Co. $3.95

New York businessman and explorer, Lewis Cotlow—who was a Palm Springs visitor last week—has made three trips into the Jivaro region of Ecuador and Peru and brought back a fascinating tale of the Jivaro head-hunters who cut off an enemy's head, shrink it to the size of a fist and dance around it. What kind of human beings are they who do such strange things—and why?

These dangerous people of the Amazon country were found by Mr. Cotlow to be very different from the popular conception of them. They love their families and are kind to their children. Convinced that a stranger means them no harm, they are friendly and generous. Why then this savage custom? Mr. Cotlow answers this question in a very interesting way.

If you like adventure with authentic information about strange people and their religious beliefs, you will enjoy every minute of this book.

TRY GIVING YOURSELF AWAY By David Dunn. The Updegraff Press, Ltd., Scarsdale, N.Y.

A little book with a big idea—an idea of a method of finding happiness told by a businessman who discovered it by accident. Mr. Dunn's plan of happier daily life is based on a principle as old as the hills yet one which few people have discovered as he did. You will pick up thoughts in this book (that you can read in an hour) that may stay with you all your life.

Mr. Dunn's formula is simple and yet overlooked by the average person seeking greater happiness. "The secret of successfully giving yourself away," he says, "is not so much in calculated actions as in cultivating friendly, warm-hearted impulses. You have to train yourself to obey impulses on the instant—before they get a chance to cool . . . and then something happens inside of you that makes you glow, sometimes for hours."

One way of finding the greatest happiness costs only three cents! Can you guess what it is?

Everyone who reads this book will want to try giving themselves away more often and experiencing the happiness that results. Don't miss it!

$10,000 REWARD

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT ABOUT THE STRIKE AGAINST SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY

Since the CIO Union called its unannounced strike against us shortly after midnight Thursday, April 2nd, there have been numerous cases of sabotage that have clearly been a byproduct of the strike.

In many of these cases the meters supplying gas to apartment houses or housing projects have been turned off without warning, by unknown persons. Gas service was interrupted in the dwelling units in these buildings.

Tampering with gas meters, as with any of the Company's gas delivery facilities, is a felony in California. During the period of the strike, therefore, Southern California Gas Company offers to pay a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons who unlawfully interfere with, damage or destroy any operating facility of the Company required and used by it for the purpose of delivering gas in the performance of its duties to the public.

It is almost unthinkable that anyone, regardless of motives, would take a step which obviously interrupts a vital public service and endangers public safety. But it has happened. As of Monday morning there had been a total of over 1000 dwelling units affected.

In a hand-out distributed by strikers on picket lines the Union said in part "your safety, comfort, and convenience are being completely disregarded by the Company management." We have stated to the public, and state again, that in the absence of illegal interference with our operations, there is no reason to expect interruption of gas service.

The strikers' irresponsible act of walking out in a public service business at the hour of one minute past midnight, without notice to the Company, speaks for itself as to their regard for "public safety, comfort and convenience." Such an act could only be designed to affect, to the greatest possible extent, the Company's ability to continue to supply gas service to its customers. However, this act did not accomplish its purpose.

The subsequent acts of sabotage, presumably committed by strikers or strike sympathizers, speak for themselves even more clearly.

We will continue to use every proper means at our disposal to maintain continuous gas service, and we appreciate the cooperation of our customers in limiting their requests to emergency service calls.

Dr. Bowman, a well-known author, has written several books on advertising and selling and recently has published a book on the principles and practices of public speaking.

Doodles, Skeeter Now in 10th Week at Saddle, Sirloin

Two young men with a brilliant future.

That's the prediction for both Doodles and Skeeter, two of the funniest mimics ever to hit town and who continue to hold an audience night after night at the Saddle and Sirloin.

That last statement is borne out by the fact that the two comedians are now past their tenth week in one night spot, an unheard of record in this community since night clubs sprang into operation here.

Noticed night after night are many patrons of the popular Saddle and Sirloin who have returned again and again to see the two boys put on their act.

And many of these steady habits have declared:

"We have laughed longer and louder at the antics of Doodles and Skeeter after the third, fourth and fifth visit than we did during the first two times we witnessed the show there."

Dave Lyons announced that the comedy team is to remain at the Saddle and Sirloin for an additional time, limited, however, due to an engagement at a night club in Los Angeles.

Adding considerably to the bill at the Saddle nightly is Anne Morre, sepiu songster and pianist. She is unique in her style at the ivory keys and delightful in her delivery of her songs.

Arabs Smother Indians, 29-2, in Baseball Game

Baseball season arrived in the Village Wednesday, but Coach Scott Thompson's high school line probably thought that the football season had returned as they found themselves on the short end of a 29 to 2 score after the practice tilt with Coachella.

Bribery Case Postponed on Error charge

Mackey Claims Threats Made and Jury Dismissed

First jury panel in the trial of four suspects, indicted on charges of attempting to bribe Sheriff Joe Rice to permit gambling in the Palm Springs area was dismissed Monday and the trial re-set for April 13 after claims of threats against state witnesses brought about a ruling of "prejudicial error."

District Attorney William O. Mackey said, before the jury panel, that two of his star witnesses had been threatened with violence.

DEFENSE ATTORNEYS at once brought charges of "prejudicial error" and Judge Russell Waite ordered the jury panel dismissed and re-set the start of the trial for next Monday. A new jury panel will be drawn.

The four defendants are Don Parker, Ned Piper, Eads, John Schoneite and Edward Bilbrey. They are accused of offering Sheriff Rice $4000 not to interfere with a gambling casino they planned to operate near this city.

MACKEY MADE his threat charges Monday in answering a plea of the defense for a further continuance of the trial. He said that a further delay would work a hardship on the prosecution especially "when several witnesses have been threatened by the defendants."

He did not mention any names in court but later said that one of the state's witnesses, Robert Franks of Palm Springs, had been threatened with death if he testified.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY Joseph Seymour said the charges were a "figment of district attorney's imagination."

Defense attorneys, with 30 peremptory challenges, estimated it would take two or three days to select a jury.

I'm assuming that we will be in the same situation as the rest—that a new salary schedule will be requested."

McCABE TOLD the trustees that Palm Springs last year adopted a cost-of-living increase which did not establish a fixed charge upon the district. "There's no reason to believe that the board will eliminate this cost-of-living attachment to the salary this year, and they might consider an increase in this way," he said.

He explained that all districts have fixed incomes, and fixed expenses. That is why the Palm Springs board adopted the cost-of-living increase rather than adopting a new salary schedule and having another fixed charge which might be excessive in the future, he said.

Problems in current building programs, as well as those in the future were discussed by the trustees. Costs in the desert area are approximately 10 to 15 per cent higher than in areas near Riverside, because of labor pool and transportation costs, it was explained.

around the... TENNIS CLUB

By Beth Scott

Hardly has the Tennis Club staged one huge successful party until news comes of another in the making for the immediate future. Following the tremendous Easter brunch and hat fashion showing, which packed the Tennis Club, this week's mail brings invitations to the annual Beaux Arts Costume Ball.

Slated as one of the highlights on the Circus Week program the Beaux Arts Ball will be sponsored by Desert Art Center and is to take place on Friday evening, April 17th.

Each year at this time the club's tennis courts are converted into a Paris street scene, and the most fabulous of costumes appear for the warm desert evening's party.

As usual the Tennis Club has been humming with activities and parties. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrell, of Los Angeles, presided at a dinner for 12 friends including the Bob Hopes on Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sibert, who are vacationing at Smoke Tree, were dinner hosts in the club for a party of 16.

Willard Johnson, past president of the California Realty board, with Mrs. Johnson, Betty Lou and Willard Jr., all of San Francisco, joined friends for the fashion show brunch on Easter.

In Palm Springs for a long weekend were Dr. and Mrs. Reuben Larson, of Los Angeles, who entertained several times in the Tennis Club during their holiday. One dinner party had as their guests: Mr. and Mrs. Dolph Oberfel, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeler, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kelley, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Bonesteel, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ransom and their houseguest, Hans Nelson of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fallgren, Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McAlister, Mrs. Bertine Treat, Miss Barbara Larson, and Walter Clark.

Mrs. Charles Becker, who has been so busy lately with her new home, took time out this week to be hostess at a luncheon for 8 friends. Others entertaining recently have been Mr. and Mrs. Solle Manasee, E. W. A. Peake, Mrs. Russell Garner (Life Member of the Club), Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Anderson, Mrs. Linn Johnson, and others.

Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ahmandson of Newport Beach, who are vacationing in the Tennis Club bungalows, will give a dinner for 18 in the Bougainville Room. More than 60 ladies will assemble there on April 22 when Mrs. John Pike of Redlands brings a group for the benefit of the Redlands Bowl.

Occupying the Tennis Club bungalows are Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Olsen and their Stanford son. This family came from Hopkins, Minn., to sojourn in the desert sunshine. Others in the bungalows are: Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Watkins, La Salle, Illinois, Mr. and Mrs. Russ Wolden and young Rusty, San Francisco, Mrs. Dorothy Fleet and son, Sandy, La Jolla; Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Duffield and daughters Susan and Frances, Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Worden, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grisson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hecker, all of San Francisco.

Also from the bay area are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Payne, Piedmont, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Arnott, Atherton; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bray and family, Redwood City.

John W. McCoy Promoted to Assistant Cashier Post

Promotion of John W. McCoy to the post of assistant cashier at Palm Springs branch of Bank of America has been announced by Fred G. Ingram, branch manager.

McCoy becomes an officer of the bank in the short space of five and one-half years from the time he began his career as a teller here. His rapid advancement has been due both to his abilities and his educational background, Manager Ingram said.

AFTER GRADUATING from high school in New Richmond, Wisconsin, McCoy attended Beloit college in his home state for one year, and the next three at University of Minnesota, in Minneapolis. In addition, he studied at University of Wisconsin's School of banking at Madison.

He has spent his entire banking career at Palm Springs branch, and has progressed through the positions of paying and receiving teller, escrow clerk, note teller, and assistant in making installment and commercial loans. In his new capacity he will make real estate loans as well as other types.

McCoy served in the United States Navy from 1943 to 1946 and was commanding officer of an LST at the time of his discharge. He is now a lieutenant in U. S. Naval Reserve.

He has taken an active part in community affairs here and is at present treasurer of Knights of Columbus, committeeman for Boy Scouts of America, and an active Kiwanian.

Vandalism Costs State Big Sum in Road Sign Loss

Destruction of highway signs by vandals has cost Southland taxpayers more than 250,000 in the past decade, according to a report released today by the posting department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Most of the vandalism is done by motorists shooting at signs from their automobiles. This destructive "sport" has been most prevalent in rural areas adjacent to large population centers, such as Antelope Valley in Los Angeles County and Mission Valley near San Diego.

Last year it cost nearly $17,000 to replace signs mutilated by gunfire along Southland highways. Cost to replace each enamel-covered steel road marker runs more than $6.50. Under ordinary conditions these signs will last 30 years.

The Auto Club offers a reward of $25 to anyone who brings about the arrest and conviction of persons destroying highway signs.

State Tax

Deadline Next Week, Reminder

State Controller Robert C. Kirkwood, who is also chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, reminded California taxpayers today that state income tax returns must be filed by April 15 to avoid penalty.

All single persons with net incomes of $2000 or more and married persons with combined net incomes of $3500 or more during 1952 must file returns.

R. H. Pollard, state income tax examiner from Los Angeles, is now on duty daily from 8:30 to 5 p. m. in the state Controller's office at 3900 Market street in Riverside to answer questions and aid in making out returns.

Success of Indio Fair Reported

Study of reports on recent Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival in February at Indio and discussion of future expansion and plans for next year's event were main order of business when Fair Board committee members met at the county court house in Riverside.

Present at the meeting were William E. Jones, chairman of the Board of Supervisors; Supervisors Sherman Lewis, Homer Varner, Roman Warren and Committeeman Wayne Fisher, Roy King, Mrs. Billye Goodale and G. L. Christiansen.

Fair Manager Bob Fullenwider reported on receipts and expenditures to date for 1953 Fair, showing revenue of $107,418, an increase of $2835 over revenue from previous year's event, and estimated operating expenses of $99,500 through fiscal year ending June 30, or more than $19,000 under the set budget.

Fullenwider emphasized that there is no county property tax involved in the operations of the annual Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival, hence no burden being

2 Supervisors Take a Walk After 7 Hours of Bickering

After seven hours of stormy debate over matters ranging from a $20 expense for nameplates for desks in the supervisorial chamber to money for part-time librarians, two county supervisors "took a walk" Monday.

Sherman Lewis and Irwin Hayden decided they had had enough after the seven hours of bickering and the start of a new debate.

Lewis got up, said he couldn't stomach any more and stalked out. Hayden followed him leaving Chairman William Jones, Homer Varner and Warren Roman to conduct the county's business.

MUCH OF THE QUARRELING was about minor matters.

It started when Warren moved that the county spend $20 for nameplates to identify the people who sit at the board table or near it.

Lewis said it would be a ridiculous waste of money. Warren said it would help the public. When Warren refused to withdraw his motion Lewis said: "These signs are just to satisfy the ego of some people. Hayden said it was juvenile and Varner said some of the supervisors seem to act that way. When the vote came, Jones, who said the idea was originally his own, voted against it with Hayden and Lewis. Then he said he would provide the signs with his own money.

HAYDEN SAID he would give Jones his nameplate.

"You can have a skunk painted on it and put in on your mantle to remind you of your years on the county board."

After more hours of bickering the final quarrel broke out when Warren proposed to ask the county library board to approve a part-time librarian at the county branch library at Highgrove. Lewis and Hayden objected and after Warren stood by his request, walked out of the meeting.

Four Dwellings Begun in Village

Four new dwellings marked last week's activity in building in Palm Springs. They were valued at $72,000.

Local permits were issued to: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, 460 Sunset way, dwelling, $22,000.

Mr. and Mrs. James Diamond, 1221 Paseo de Marica, W. A. Foster, dwelling, $22,000.

M. W. Sekyll, 1035 Marshall way, Larry Juscia, dwelling, $18,000.

Charles Shewe, 860 Caballeros, dwelling, $10,000.

One permit was issued in the Palm Springs area by the county building department to George V. Bose, 578 D street, Cathedral City, Reynolds, addition, $3656.

New C. of C. Board

Chamber of Commerce directors elected at last week's annual election were Claude Cobb, Carl Emerson, Emil Greener, Mike Gordon, Herb Henry, Vernon Krings, L. C. Lewis, Charles Scherck, Bob Sherrill, Jim Wol-seth. These with the five directors, Edward Biles, Paul Clark, Russ Hewitson, Leslie Kelley and Warner Moon, whose terms expire next year will form the board for the ensuing year.

President Biles announced that besides regular maintenance of the Town Hall and Sunair Park, the Chamber this season had provided for printing and distribution of 15,000 Cathedral City folders with maps prepared by director Paul Clark, had reprinted the bulletin boards at either end of the village and the directional sign on Ramon road.

In cooperation with the Woman's club and Lions club under the supervision of Mrs. Bud Mhoon, the islands on Broadway have been attractively planted with shrubbery. Through constant petitions to Road Commissioner A.
C. Keith and the efforts of L. C.
Lewis of the board of planning commissioners, Cathedral City streets have just been sealed.

This is an operation which not only smooths the paving but also protects it and adds greatly to their appearance.

Father Joseph Leissler called the attention of the board to the number of auto accidents on Glenn avenue. It was agreed to report each accident to County Road Commissioner Keith. The Chamber has many times asked for stop signs on some of Cathedral City's streets, but the division of highways to whom Mr.
Keith has referred the requests believes that stop signs are not the answer, though they have admitted that a stop at C and D streets in order to slow down the traffic on Glenn avenue and Van Fleet streets might be of some benefit. Membership chairman Leslie Kelley said that there were still quite a few Cathedral City business men who had not yet taken out their 1953 membership and requested them to stop in at Rupp's Supply and contribute their share toward community improvement.

Woman's Club

"Civilian Defense" was the topic of the speaker of the day for the Cathedral City Woman's club at its meeting last week at the Town Hall. Col. O. S.
Drescher, USA retired, coordinator of Riverside county for Civilian Defense gave an interesting outline of the plans of this organization in our area in case of an atomic attack on the Los Angeles area. Coachella Valley is designated as a "holding area" where a volume of tourists and people who have lost their homes can be taken care of until other quarters can be found and visitors sent through into Arizona and to their own states. It is estimated by the committee that over highways leading into our area 20,000 people a day will travel in, and only 7000 can be screened and sent on into Arizona in one day, which means that 10 days will be needed for the "mass care" of these people.
Col. Drescher saw service in both World Wars with the field artillery and is just recently retired.

Margaret Davidson, first vice president and program chairman, filled the office of president for the day due to the absence of Mrs. Alphamary Larrison, president, who was attending the conference of the 51st annual convention of Southern District California Federation of Women's clubs at the Mission Inn in Riverside. With Mrs. Larrison for the three-day convention was Mrs. Helen O'Brien and Mrs.
Agnes Wilbur. The main business of the day was the reading of reports from officers and committees of their activities and reflections for the past club year.
Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the tea hostesses, Eleanor McNamara, Gwen Mayfield and Florence
Powell.

Easter Services

The Community church was filled to capacity at the two Easter morning services which were held in order to be able to take care of the worshippers. The church was appropriately decorated with Easter lilies donated by Mrs. H. H. Zilgitt, by Mrs.
Harvey Peterson in memory of her mother, and by Mrs. M. M.
Inman in memory of the late Dr. Inman, and with flowers from Mrs. Russell Perkins and Mrs. Wilbur Larrison. The junior choir sang at the 9:30 service and the adult choir at the 11 o'clock worship. Mrs. N. C.
Wickland trained and led both choirs. Professor Vlado Kolitsch played a violin solo at each service. Reverend Graham Hunter announced that the membership as a whole would, next Sunday, after the services, consider the report of the building committee regarding the erection of a small unit for the Sunday school.
This will be the start of a building program which it is hoped in the not too distant future will provide proper space for church activities in a suitable architectural and landscaped setting.

Inter-State Meet

The session of the Adult Education Rug Making class at Tramview Recreation hall last Tuesday turned into an interstate meet. Besides eighteen regular members of the class, about a dozen visitors, many here for the Easter holidays, thronged the class. States represented were Washington, Oregon, Montana, and from California the communities of Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Indio, Desert Hot Springs, Sacramento, Whittier, Vista and San Gabriel. The visitors seemed amazed at the variety and beauty of the rugs, completed and in progress, and especially the originality of the unique patterns designed by the instructor, Jessie T. Dering. If the attendance warrants, it is planned to continue the rug class through April, Tuesdays from 9 to 12 a. m., at Tramview Recreation hall.

St. Louis Church

Attendance at the St. Louis Catholic church for the past two months has been especially gratifying states Father Joseph Leis-sler. For the past 10 Sundays the congregation numbered from 307 to 388 and worshipping at the village church on the feast of the Resurrection of Our Lord.
The church was beautifully decorated with Easter and Callalilies. The imported French cloth of gold vestments and other fine appointments added to the solemnity of the services. Appropriate Easter music was sung by the mixed choir. The full rich tones of the organ were augmented by the sweet music of Professor Kolitsch and his violin.

The bi-monthly meeting of the Women's Guild will be held in

Safeway Spokesman Says Milk Prices Could be Lower

The State Bureau of Milk Con-trol's action last week in reducing the price of milk by 1c and cutting the price to be paid farmers by 1 1/2c effective yesterday was attacked by a spokesman for Safeway Stores, who declared that "Once again the state bureau has ignored the interests of consumers. The state bureau should have reduced the price by another 2c per quart by cutting the amount allowed bottlers."

"IN ADJUSTING the price of milk, the state bureau of milk control should have cut the price of grocery store milk by another 2c by reducing the wholesale margin allowed bottlers for bringing milk from farm to store," O. Grover Steele, Safeway milk specialist, declared.
"Once again the state bureau has hurt consumers by standing in the way of lower prices for milk bought in grocery stores."

"The state bureau's present action is to be regretted because every one cent reduction in the price of milk would mean a saving of $14,000,000 per year to the people of California," Steele pointed out.

"The 1c per quart lower milk prices announced by the California Bureau of Milk Control come entirely from a reduction in the price set by the bureau for farmers' milk. They stand it all," Steele declared.

"FURTHERMORE the reduction to producers is greater than the gain to consumers since producers will get nearly 1 1/2c less and the price will be reduced to consumers by only 1c. It's obvious that once again the bureau has handed milk bottlers an additional profit on milk at the expense of both farmer-dairymen and consumers—this despite the fact that at the milk hearings held during the middle of March, Safeway and other milk processors urged the bureau to reduce the state fixed margin for milk bottlers who sell wholesale to grocery stores," Steele stated.

REALITY OF DISEASE AND DEATH CHALLENGED

"In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death." This declaration from Proverbs (12:28) is the Golden Text of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches. "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject.

A selection from the Gospel of Matthew (9:24,25) tells how Jesus demonstrated the power of the Word in raising from death the daughter of Jairus. When he came to the ruler's house, "He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose."

"Jesus proved the Principle, which heals the sick and casts out error, to be divine," declares Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." Again she says, "Sin, sickness, and death must disappear to give place to the facts which belong to immortal man." (pp. 473, 476)

WOULD LIKE TO BURN

WHEREAS it is more or less understood that the glamorous metropolis of Palm Springs (formerly known as The Village) is maintained, operated and inhabited chiefly for the recreation, edification, delectation and infiltration of divers and sundry plutocratic paying guests; and

WHEREAS it has been decided, ordained and decreed by the Sitting Council that no offense to the nostrils of said paying guests shall be occasioned through the burning of trash by the local common citizenry, it is with some trepidation that the undersigned, as a mere permanent resident of the community, presumes to propose that, WHEREAS the greater number of said more or less plutocratic paying guests take their departure for various unknown destinations late in the Spring, thus leaving the erstwhile Village in a state of comparative peace, it should be decreed, ordained and published by the Sitting Council that the permanent Residents (or common citizenry) of the said Village be granted, for a period of one or two weeks late in May and again in October, the privilege of burning various non-offensive dry leaves and tree trimmings within the confines of their respective premises;

PROVIDED that due discretion, restraint and good taste be exercised by said citizenry in the choice of materials consigned to incineration; i.e., and e.g., that out of consideration for fellow Villagers and undeparted guests, such items as old inner tubes, discarded corsets and defunct hot water bottles be withheld from conflagration.

Cloud-Seeding Boosted Rainfall One-Sixth, Claim

Riverside, San Bernardino and Orange counties have received 16.4 per cent more rain this season than they would have without cloud-seeding.

This is the claim of Rain-maker John Battle of the Weather Modification company, which is headquartered in Redlands this year after two years at Beaumont.

Battle, in a recent report, said operation costs of his company are small when compared to what the extra rainfall water would cost obtained commercially.

During two storms this year—February 22-24 and February 28-March 2—the tri-county area received 16.4 per cent more rain than it would have had without cloud seeding, Battle said.

"A meteorological breakdown of the two storms indicates that the results of seeding are quite economically beneficial when given the correct and complete weather factors on which to work," Battle said.

He said cloud seeding in dry years is worth even more because rain is even more critically needed. In wet years, he said, more water is provided for surface reservoirs and underground basins.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

Next Sunday night, April 12 at 7 p. m., the people of the Palm Desert community will gather at the Shadow Mountain club for a banquet in honor of the Rev. Dr. John Robertson Macartney and his gracious wife, Lucille. The affair will be a special tribute to Dr. Macartney in honor of his 58th anniversary in the ministry. It will also be a farewell dinner for the Macartneys who are leaving us this month to retire after five years of hard work in establishing the Palm Desert Community church. The banquet will not be restricted to club members, as this will be a community affair. Reservations may be made at Shadow Mountain club.

Sunday, April 26, Dr. Macartney will preach his last sermon in the Palm Desert Community church. Taking his place on May 3, is Dr. Martin Baker from San Marino, California. Dr. Baker came to San Marino in 1941 where he organized the Presbyterian church with a handful of only 75 people. Today, the membership numbers 1500 and has one of the loveliest English Gothic churches in southern California, costing $750,000.

Dr. Baker is also a trustee of Occidental college and will give the Baccalaureate to the graduating class at the end of the semester. Paul G. Hoffman will give the Commencement address. The Commencement exercises at Occidental will be shown on television for the first time.

Dr. and Mrs. Baker have purchased a building site in Palm Desert and are busy with plans preparing to build their permanent home here. John P. Mover of Palm Desert is designing the house. The Bakers have one son, George, who is 22 and is in the Navy stationed at Long Beach, California. George is a talented musician and is going to play the organ for his father at the church services the first two Sundays in May. We are very fortunate to have a man such as Dr. Baker move into this community and carry on the church work that was started by our beloved Dr. Macartney. He has great plans for the future of the Palm Desert Community church.

Last week the festivities at the Shadow Mountain Terrace included a noolside punch party for the guests. Among them were the E. Staudle Martins and son, Clive; their daughter Barbara and husband, Volney McCutcheon; Pat and James Craig—all from Long Beach; Mrs. Frederick Werder's daughters, Sandra, Wendee and Heather; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Graham with daughters Karen, Toni and son Billy, of Pacific Palisades. Mrs. Graham is "Dutch" Kindelberger's daughter (North American Aviation).

The Palm Desert Adobe "went Canadian" last week. There were 11 people from Canada at the Verne Peck's cocktail party Friday night. They were the Harold Smiths from Winnipeg; Mr. and Mrs. William Milner and the William Brooks from Vancouver; Mr. Jack Purcell from Toronto, who was the Canadian badminton champion for five years; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mullin, formerly from Alberta; and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kloss from Vancouver. Non-Canadians at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Art Donnelly, General Petroleum executive; and Brian Donlevy with his guests from New York, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas McDavid.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN ECHOES: Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart and family spent the week at Firecliff as did the Justin Darts and their family. The Leonard Firestones entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stewart from Hartsville, Ohio. Mon Wallgren's houseguests this month are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gorrie, former chairman of the National Security Resources board. The Tom Browns' guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rich-

Magadini Takes Over Presidency of Toastmasters

Charles Magadini was installed as president of Palm Springs Toastmasters last Thursday night and retiring president, Dr. William Aikin given an ovation when the club met at the Tennis club.

Paul Traver and Morris Finerman presented the speeches of the evening, the former talking on "Sad Tales" and Finerman on "Why I Always Trade with My Competition."

Speakers for this evening's meeting at the Tennis club are Clarence Brachlin, William Foster, Warner Moon and Eric Walker with Jack Sander as master of ceremonies. Louis Swanson will direct the impromptu talks with Finerman leading the critics.

ard Maney and Miss Pat Penny from North Hollywood; and the Charlie Millikens house was overflowing with the J. Richard Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilhelm from Oakland (he is regional parts and accessories manager for Chevrolet); Mrs. Harriet Dunson, also from Oakland; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lethery, Chevrolet dealer in Banning; with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hambley Closterman from Banning. The Millie Mitchell and Al Petersons' house was filled with family—Millie's daughter, Kathleen came down from Stockton for the week. Clifton and Rose Mitchell came from Vallejo with their daughter, Wilma and son Mills. Wilma, who is seventeen, was so thrilled when Brian Donlevy autographed a Shadow Mountain club menu for her and gave her his beautiful white linen handkerchief with his initials as a souvenir. Visiting Palm Desert for the first time were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kasper as guests of the Otto Allgoewers. He is president of the Kasper and Kennedy Insurance company in Stockton, California. Leland Quick has been elected president of the Palm Desert Rotary club for the coming year and Mrs. Quick has won her point in naming their residence here—it is "Quick Sands".

Carnation Corner

Whether the morning cereal is creamy oatmeal or a crispy dry cereal — Carnation fresh Half & Half makes it taste so good! From breakfast on, Carnation Half & Half is a wonderful standby—so extra rich, yet costs so much less than cream.

CHOCOLATE BROWNIES

(Makes about 25 2" brownies)
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 squares (2 oz.) melted bitter chocolate
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup Carnation Half & Half
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Blend sugar, butter, egg and vanilla until light and fluffy. Add chocolate, mix well. Add dry ingredients alternately with Half & Half. Stir until smooth; add chopped nuts. Place in buttered 9 x 9" square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 30 minutes. Cool, top with sifted confectioners' sugar, cut in squares.

DO KEEP CANDLES IN THE REFRIGERATOR!
Candles will burn evenly and slowly if you refrigerate them 24 hours before you light them.

Carnation Half & Half makes a very superior cream sauce. Lots of times, too, I use it "as is" to cream cooked fresh peas or french green beans—you know, green beans cut in little slivers and cooked quickly in a little boiling, salted water. At the last minute, add warmed Carnation Half & Half and a tiny bit of pepper (fresh-ground if possible).

Crunchy Seafood Loaf

(Makes 4-6 Servings)
2 cups cooked seafood*
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2/3 cup bread or cracker crumbs
1 egg
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped celery
2/3 cup Carnation Half & Half
Combine all ingredients; blend thoroughly. Place in loaf pan (9 x 5 x 3") lined with waxed paper. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes, or until firm. Serve hot or cold.
*Any cooked seafood (lobster, tuna, salmon) can be used.

Abyssinians Stuffed Pillows with Celery

...they thought that was all it was good for. The first celery was a wild, bitter herb that grew in the marshes of Europe and Asia. The ancient Chinese used celery only for medicinal purposes. The Greeks and Romans developed the process that takes away the bitter taste and makes it the crisp, sweet vegetable we enjoy today. Both our coasts are famous celery areas. California, particularly, supplies our markets with tons of crisp, green Pascal celery each year.

TELL YOUR HUSBAND a strip of adhesive tape over a hammer will prevent slipping or marring when hammering round-headed upholstering tacks.

Don't you love Carnation's new cartons with the colorful ovals to identify each product? The Half & Half oval is half-red, half-blue—easy to pick out at the store or in your refrigerator. Keep plenty of Carnation Half & Half on hand!

Friday Last Day to Vote on Date Marketing Plan

Reports from the Date Advisory Board office in Indio indicate that growers and handlers of California dates are anxious to register their opinion as to continuance of the present "Marketing Order for Dates as Amended." A heavy volume of sealed returns has been received each day since last Wednesday. Numbered ballots were sent out last week to all names on the official grower and handler lists, with a request that they be returned not later than Friday, April 10. An Advisory Board committee and Manager Ted Portman will open and tally the votes on Monday.

All growers and handlers were urged to take advantage of the opportunity to express their recommendation as to "continuance," "suspension," or "termination" of the Marketing Order under which the date industry has been operating for several years.

"It's not a question of how any individual may feel on the subject," said Manager Ted Portman, "the important thing is to make this poll as complete as possible. We hope everyone receiving a ballot will return it by tomorrow as requested. Then, the leaders of the date industry will know how everyone feels."

A meeting of the Date Advisory board has been set for Tuesday morning, April 14, to take proper action on the outcome of the voting.

Villagers Unhurt in Crash Landing

Four Palm Springs residents in a private airplane piloted by Paul Bigrigg of Beaumont escaped without injury when the craft made a forced landing on brush-covered terrain in New Mexico.

The four were Fred Murray and his three children all listed in press dispatches as residents of Palm Springs.

Bigrigg said leaking oil caused engine failure on his twin-motored airplane and that he tried to reach Albuquerque but was losing altitude too fast. He then tried to land on Highway 66 but the traffic was too thick. He brought the plane down on brush-covered land. The wings and engine were ripped from the craft but the occupants were unhurt.

Hit-Runner Does Damage to Auto

Mrs. James J. Downing, 2058 Ramon road, reported to police Saturday that another car had struck the rear of her car while she was stopped at the intersection of Indian avenue and Ramon road, damaging the exhaust pipes and bumper.

The driver of the other car continued on without stopping, she said.

Jaycee Sponsors Educational Film on "Narcotics"

An educational program and movie on "Narcotics" for law enforcement officers, teachers, parents and interested citizens will be held at 3:45 p. m., Monday, April 13, at Palm Springs high school, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Henry B. Hall, executive secretary for the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America, will be the speaker. Hall recently addressed the state Jaycee meeting at Berkeley, which was attended by many local members.

A resolution passed by the Jaycees at Berkeley called for more strict legislation for the control of narcotics and increased penalties for violation of narcotic laws. Local Jaycees have written their legislators and asked for support of this measure.

Stanley Lewis, in charge of the program, urged everyone to attend the meeting. "We owe it to ourselves, those we serve, and our children to educate ourselves about this rapidly growing problem," he said.

Tea Dansant Largest Local Charity Event Ever Held in Village

Clearing over $10,000, the Tea Dansant at El Mirador Saturday evening was the largest and most successful ever staged for a local charity. It has been decided to make it an annual affair.

Mrs. Thomas Fleming, general chairman, said this week that she is very happy with the results and extends her appreciation to all the workers who helped make the Tea Dansant such a success. She particularly thanked the young women, who sold over $3000 worth of scrip. Proceeds are being divided between Our Lady of Solitude and St. Theresa churches, and St. Theresa school.

The Studebaker car, donated by Belmont Sanchez, went to Mrs. J. A. Furey of Wildwood, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Furey (he is the nephew of Dr. John Costello) who had been honeymooning in the Village had returned to their home so Sanchez is arranging to have the car delivered to them.

Winners in the hat contest were Mrs. Montague Herbert, Mrs. Lovey O'Donnell, Mrs. O. E. L. Graves and Mrs. Charles Farrell.

Gussie Moran and Diane (Mousey) Powell opened the entertainment with a singing act that was designed to convulse the audience . . . and it did. Matt Dennis played the piano accompaniment for them.

The male fashion show presented Bob Hope, Charles Farrell, George Montgomery and Bill Gargan in some very unusual attire.

Virginia Valli Farrell was mistress of ceremonies and Dinah Shore made a brief appearance. The entertainment was staged at one end of the El Mirador pool and the pool deck was literally crowded with spectators.

There was dancing to the music of Teddy Noel's orchestra from the Racquet club and the Guadalajara Trio from the Doll House played.

The water ballet with its spectacular Fire Number presented the Sea Nymphs from Riverside, in a beautiful water show.

It was a warm Spring evening and the crowd lingered on after the show, with many remaining to dine in one or another of El Mirador's dining rooms.

The use of the El Mirador grounds was without charge and the only expenses involved were for the beverages and sandwiches, which were sold at the Tea Dansant.

Mrs. Borden Now at Racquet Club

Mrs. Clay Borden, who has been social director at La Quinta this season has completed her work there and will be at the Racquet club for a few weeks. Down from Menlo to spend the holidays with his mother was Chris Borden.

Palm Springs was . . . the bright spot of the county . . . on Easter Sunday . . . and can boast of the only Sunrise service . . . that really saw the sun come up . . . in all its glory . . .

The Idea of an Easter Parade

. . . is particularly fitting here . . . and is one that should be expanded . . . There's no reason at all . . . why Palm Canyon drive shouldn't be lined with strollers . . . out to enjoy the matchless sunshine . . . and show off their Easter finery . . . Fifth avenue can't offer anything so good . . .

Golden Egg

Charmingly-frocked and suited youngsters . . . were hunting Easter Eggs all over the Village . . . it seemed like . . . The magician and the midgits wearing Rabbit uniforms at El Mirador . . . were probably the most spectacular . . . but the bright-clad children and the gaily-decorated eggs and baskets . . . made colorful scenes at most of the Village hostilities . . . It took a sharp-eyed youngster to find the Golden Egg that captured the top prize . . . at the Lone Palm's Egg hunt . . . for it was hidden atop the hat Tru Slocum was wearing . . .

The act Gussie Moran and Mousey Powell put on at the Tea Dansant . . . was strictly from corn . . . but kinda cute . . . and I rather liked the comment I heard . . . "That's the Racquet club's answer to the Andrews Sisters" . . .

Madcap Hats

Hats just aren't in the Palm Springs tradition . . . but the unusual combination of Easter and a tea dansant . . . brought forth some remarkable creations Saturday at the El Mirador. Julie Taurog was charming in a monster cartwheel with trailing streamers . . . Julie Kline wore a be-pearled white pillbox with a single jaunty red rose on top . . . Betty Herbert, who won first place, was picturesque in a black picture hat of horsehair lace, trimmed with lilacs. Virginia Farrell wore an inspired creation of plastic . . . which tinged from clear to black and was adorned with huge tulips (incidentally it looked better on Virginia than on Charlie, who wore it in the men's fashion show . . . I thought it clashed with his plaid coat) . . .

Mrs. A. R. Simon's hat was a masterpiece . . . an Easter Rabbit in a nest . . . but proved too heavy to wear very long . . . Mrs. Terry Ray looked very pretty in a romantic black horsehair, that was dipped, to show a single coquettish rose above one ear . . . The secret of this one . . . was that it was a last-minute inspiration . . . and made from a fancy place mat . . . Vicki Malouf had on a becoming white hat, with a touch of red . . . which was circled with daisies . . . Lovey O'Donnell (a prize winner) looked very chic in an all-pink ensemble . . . but was amused to win a prize . . . She said the dress was new . . . but the hat wasn't . . . Jeanne Keller, who is noted for her hat concoctions . . . had a dilly (I think it was the merry-go-round one) and wore Easter Egg earrings . . .

From Aloha Land

The arrival of the Harold Schillings today from Honolulu . . . will set off a round of parties . . . during the fortnight they will be in the Village . . . Mrs. Schilling is the former Louise Roberson . . . and her parents, the George Robersons will entertain around 70 guests this evening in honor of the visitors . . . A buffet supper in Hawaiian mood will be served around the pool at the Desert Inn . . . Johnny and Tani Boyle will sing and dance . . . Next Monday evening the Claude Valeurs (Mrs. Schilling and Mrs. Valeur are sisters) will be hosts at an Italian dinner . . . honoring the visitors . . . The garden of the Valeur home at 323 West Tahquitz will be a gay scene . . . with small tables spread with red-and-white checkered tablecloths . . . with chianti bottles and bread sticks . . . Among the 40-some guests will be Messrs. and Mmes. William Gargan, Trav Rogers, Jack Kenaston, Dick Edwards, Frank Bogert, Milt Hicks, Doug Kenaston, William Kenaston, Earl Coffman, George Roberson, Father Michael O'Connor . . . and others . . . At fortnight's end the Schillings will go to Florida . . . and then on a yachting trip to Nassau . . . before returning to the Village in May . . .

Mrs. Kenneth Kirk was hostess yesterday . . . at a big luncheon party at the Ciel Chapman March of Dimes show at the B'Hills hotel . . . Among Villagers attending were . . . Mmes. Thomas Fleming, William Banerman and William Malouf . . .

Ed Houghton, who has been in Chicago on a business trip . . . arrived back in the Village yesterday . . . driving a new Cadillac for E. Roy Fitzgerald . . . While Ed was away . . . Mrs. Houghton left with the Guy Hickmans to spend April in Florida . . .

Diane Displays New Spring and Fall Fashions at Show

Diane of Palm Springs showed her new Spring and Fall collection of hand-knit elegance at a luncheon at El Mirador Saturday.

The new dentelle gowns, knit with linen instead of wool and especially designed for resort wear, were a popular feature of the show.

The gowns, ranging from sports clothes to formal, were beautifully-fitted and possess a chic that will take the wearer any place.

A wide variety of necklines and original patterns lent distinction to the clothes which are made by the physically handicapped, using Diane's designs.

Beautiful professional models ascended the platform and circled the dining room wearing Diane's creations. Bill Bardo's music furnished an inspired background for the show.

In the collection were such popular numbers as the Poodle dress, the Wise Old Owl, the Unicorn, and the Water Lily. Quite a bit of Royal Blue was noted.

A very striking creation was the Fleeta dress, of deep blue, with circular bandings of all the primary colors. This gown has a sweetheart neckline.

A beige blonde linen knit had bronze metallic threads in it. Several cocktail gowns, off-the-shoulders, were heavily beaded and charmingly designed for smart after five wear.

Among the more unique show pieces was the Mink dress which was worn by Lana Turner for a picture in a national magazine, and the clinging, black "Beau Catcher."

Diane, herself, emceed the show, which closed with the gorgeous white wedding gown that has won her so many awards. In a lace pattern, the gown is sewn with seed pearls.

All the gowns shown in the style show are on display all this week at Diane's Palm Canyon drive shop, located in the new Sunset Towers building.

Paradise of Flowers Marks Show at Women's Club

By RUTH MARTIN

A paradise of flowers was created at the Palm Springs Woman's club on Monday afternoon, when Mrs. Chester C. Moorten as chairman of the Annual Flower Show, presented her beautiful pageant, "Crown Jewels of Flowerland," to a large and appreciative audience.

The coronation theme was manifest throughout the exhibits where cleverly designed standards with tiny jeweled crowns at the top indicated the various sections reserved for segregated varieties and arrangements of flowers. Especially noteworthy were several large crowns made of unusual flowers and plant materials placed with royal correctness, each on a velvet corded pillow.

Gorgeous blooms of every conceivable variety and hue were exhibited and some of the arrangements were of professional perfection. Tables of novelties, miniatures and driftwood creations also proved of outstanding interest.

Space does not permit individual mention of the many artistic triumphs other than to say that Mrs. George F. Manington captured the sweepstakes prize with her exquisite arrangement of "Dainty Bess" roses in a white vase. A list of other award winners will be published at an early date.

After a short business meeting, Mrs. S. P. Manasse accepted the office of president for a second term outlining the objectives, ideals and aspirations of the Palm Springs Woman's club for the ensuing year and presented her new executive board members individually to the audience.

Mrs. Randall Henderson, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Merrill Grow, a speaker of unaffected and natural charm, who gave a usable, clever and artistic course of instruction in how to create "Something from Nothing" in floral and novelty arrangements. Mrs. Grow stated one had but to "formulate an idea, find material, and put it together" which seemed remarkably easy for one of her great ability and originality. She was an excellent choice for the Flower Show program and proved herself a resourceful entertainer.

Mrs. Austin G. McManus and Mrs. John R. Macartney presided at a beautifully appointed tea table with Mrs. John Williams acting as chairman of the tea committee assisted by Mesdames Henry S. Reid Sr., H. J. Stewart, Charles Snyder, Myron Persons, C. G. Porter, N. F. Jones and F. C. Simonson.

Mrs. James William Netherby of Quincy, Illinois, were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Harry Grimm at 258 San Jacinto drive.

The third brother, Dr. Raymond Netherby and his wife, of Pueblo, stayed at the Vista del Sol.

This was a first visit to California for the Illinois Netherbys.

Civic Chorus to be Heard in 'Elijah' Sunday, Tuesday

Palm Springs Civic Chorus is now in its final week of rehearsal for their Sunday and Tuesday evening performances of Mendelssohn's "Elijah." Both performances are scheduled for 8 p. m. at the Jewish Community Center on Alejo road.

Although the chorus has previously given only one performance of each of its concerts, the advance ticket sell-out for Sunday night has indicated a need for a second performance on Tuesday. There will be no tickets on sale at the door on Sunday evening; however tickets for Tuesday's performance may be purchased at the door, or from members of the chorus.

ALEX HAMMOND, who is to sing the role of Elijah, has previously sung this part with the Hollywood Oratorio society when it was under the direction of Alexander Stewart. Evelyn Spikre has sung the soprano solos in "Elijah" in major cities in the country. Leon Bennett of Los Angeles, will sing the tenor arias. He will be remembered locally as the tenor soloist in the Civic Chorus's presentation of "The Messiah" at Christmas-time, and as Cantor for the Holy Week services at the Temple Isaiah this Fall.

Other soloists will be Fredrica Brown, soprano; and Reba Mason, alto. Both Mr. Hammond and Mrs. Mason are soloists at St. Paul's-in-the-Desert Episcopal church; Miss Spikre is soloist at both the Temple Isaiah and the Palm Springs Christian Science church; and Miss Brown is soloist at the Christian Science church in Indio.

HARRY J. TOMLINSON, director of the chorus has expressed his pleasure with the interest the Village has shown in this first local presentation of one of the great oratorios.

"There is a need for a musical organization such as this in Palm Springs, and it is gratifying to us all to have this excellent support," he said.

The chorus, at present under the sponsorship of the Adult Education department of the Palm Springs Unified School district, is made up of local residents, both amateur and professional, and other interested singers from as far as Indio and Riverside. They will continue meeting throughout the Spring, and are planning to give another concert

I rise--- ---TO REMARK

By JOHN PHILLIPS

This is Easter recess for the Congress, as it is for many schools. Unlike the schools, recess for the Congress applies only to sessions. We adjourned on the 2nd, to convene on the 13th. The members of the Congress melted out of Washington as the snow melts in Banning. But not to rest. They went home to report to the people what is going on in Washington, and when the promised budget cuts and tax reductions will be made, and when the people can go into the departments and agencies and not have to argue their problems with the same new dealers, in second-level jobs, with whom they have had to argue for eight years. It was not a recess for the committee on Appropriations!

I report that the new administration is moving, although necessarily slowly. Reorganization plans No. 1, 2 and 3 have been sent to the Congress. The President has prepared the executive order to remove policy-making jobs from the fictitious "civil service status," which they were given only to protect political employees under the Truman administration.

THE FIRST APPROPRIATION bill will be on the floor the week after Easter. It will be for the Interior Department. The first part of my bill, for the Independent Offices, as they are called, will be next; on the floor the week of the 20th. I think you will be encouraged by the reductions between the total and the requests in the Truman budget. The hesitant souls who are afraid of tax reduction bills may be encouraged to let that legislation roll along too.

California pays a nice large percentage of the Federal tax bill. It is encouraging to find we sometimes get some back. The Federal Power Commission, one of the agencies in my bill, collects license fees. From the fees assessed in 1951, paid in 1952, and sent to the states in 1953, California will get $15,647.09, the largest amount paid any state. This will bring the total, from 1920 to 1953, up to $619,446.44. We might trade that back for some of the land now under Federal ownership, and off the state tax rolls!

DURING THE DEBATE on the tidelands bill, which passed the House on the 1st, by a large majority, the debate covered many points. It remained for my friend, Congressman Cotton of New Hampshire, to add the most telling argument in favor of the bill. After reciting the legal points favoring state ownership of the tidelands, he delivered himself of the following:

"Even if I doubted the justice of the Bill from a technical, legal standpoint, which I do not, I would still vote for it. I can't see grabbing any more assets from our States and feeding them into the maw of a Federal Bureaucracy. If Uncle Sam, the dissolute old spendthrift, can't get by the corner saloon on Saturday night without blowing in his pay check, we had better hold out as much of it as we can for his children (the States) because they are supporting him now, and must continue to maintain him as long as he lives."

I HAVE HAD a little memo sitting on my desk for months. Perhaps Easter week is an appropriate time to use it. It is headed, "Why Rome Fell?"—and listed five reasons, from which I quote four:

1. Higher and higher taxes, and spending public moneys for "bread and circuses," to amuse and distract the people.

2. The craze for pleasure, becoming yearly more exciting and brutal.

3. The building of gigantic armaments when the real enemy was within, the decadence of the people.

Mexican Fiesta New Attraction at Padua Hills

"En el Mes de Mayo," (in the Month of May), the Mexican Players' 20th annual production bringing the highlights of the fiestas to San Ysidro, patron saint of Mexican farmers, is away to an auspicious start under a new director at the Padua Hills theater.

Following the resignation of Hild Ramirez de Jara, who directed Padua productions during World War II while Director Charles A. Dickinson was in service, and the untimely death of the plays upon his death two years ago, to take a long rest from thespian activities, Alfonso Gallardo has been named director.

Both Senora de Jara and Senor Gallardo received their technical training under the late Director Dickinson. Senor Gallardo has been dance director and technical director of the Mexican Players for many years. He is responsible for the ornate stage settings with which Padua Theater players are familiar.

With Ysabel and Jose Alba capably performing the leading romantic roles, the play centers

The Desert Primrose . . . . . Easter lily of the desert . . . . . completely took over the sand dune area this season. Especially are they dense near the Tamarisk Golf club. Their fragrance is so heavy there, one gets the impression of being in the ginger-scented tropics.

A gay group of out-of-towners, enjoying the rare treat of riding horseback through the included Marie Baughman of Beverly Hills, Gerry Barton of Los Angeles, and Maud and Jay Dickenson of Del Mar. Dale Stoners Easter morning breakfast riders to Burro Flatts, enjoyed a similar treat, but here the flowers grow closer to the ground than further out in the deeper sands, where they cluster knee high to your horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Haywood of the Haywood Publishing company of Chicago, who have been vacationing at the Tennis club with their three boys . . . were so unhappy about leaving this full-in-bloom desert. The boys were on the trails from morning to night, riding out from the Desert Inn Stables.

Easter vacation brought the young people out to enjoy the Tuesday Desert Riders breakfast in Andreas Canyon. Arlene Fletcher brought Grace Guggenheim and Joe Prince . . . The Kempers were represented by three . . . Lasee, Linda and Ken.

Young Garston had Sue Kimball. Other guests included Joe Parker and Joe Parker Jr., who came with Ann Oliver. Francis Polk Walsh of San Francisco, had as his guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd (his daughter) . . . The Ted Pierce's brought Pancho and Juanita Malters—who have purchased a home near Indio . . . Mrs. Henry Hoffman had Ann and Trey Eichellogers. Also present was new member Stanley A. Moore, who brought his horse to the desert, and has already purchased an apartment court in the Tahquitz River estates . . . Oh yes, and there was a mystery man from Nairobi . . . safari hat and all.

And now the trail-goers prepare for Desert Circuit week . . . with adorable Bonita Granville as Queen . . . so "go western" or you will land in the Kangaroo Court.

ANITA HASKELL JONES.

about the couple chosen each year to supervise the fiestas for San Ysidro, the patron saint of Mexican farmers who sends the rains to insure good crops. Dialogue is in English.

With Aztec dances performed in Mexico today in the festivals contrasted with modern dance innovations, the story concerns a farmer lad whose faith brought about a modern miracle and saved an entire village from starvation through drought.

"En el Mes de Mayo" will be staged Wednesday through Saturday evenings and Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, through May 9, with a merienda, or after-theater party.

Barbara, pouring coffee attends St. Monica's, while her sister, Joan, is a student at City College. Mr. Dempsey, who plays both father and mother to the girls, has brought them to Palm Springs at Easter for many years. The girls learned to ride on the sandy desert trails. He is now active in Student Welfare work with headquarters in Chicago, and will leave this week for Boston to referee a wrestling match to be given for the benefit of Bishop Cushing's church. Mr. Dempsey's travels will take him to several of the larger eastern cities, and then he is to return to Santa Monica to join his daughters early in June.

Garden Club Flower Show on Saturday

A day of rare beauty is anticipated next Saturday, April 11, when the Palm Springs Garden Club presents its exquisite flower show in the Center during the hours of 12 noon to 9 p. m.

The public as well as club members are cordially invited to make entries. Each entrant should reserve space by calling Mrs. George Manington, telephone 7672, by April 9.

Mrs. Fern Jones, chairman of the Flower Show committee, says that entries should be flowers, foliage and dry materials grown in the desert area. Members and friends of the club are asked to submit their choicest flowers and to use ingenious arrangements. Mrs. Jones has suggested a number of different kinds of floral arrangements, such as floral bouquets, fresh or dry arrangements, miniatures (6 in. maximum), specimen blooms (one in a container), and of course novelty arrangements. All of these will be displayed to the greatest advantage on coffee tables, dining tables, end tables, patio tables and buffets.

Again this year, the public is asked to vote its choice of the best entries, which will be selected upon the basis of the ballots cast. The show will be held at Kelley's.
